The Clay Studio of Missoula/University of Montana Summer Residency Opportunity

The Clay Studio of Missoula invites current students or recently graduates* of the University of Montana with experience and an avid interest in ceramics to apply for the second year of our newly established Summer UM Residency.

From June 1st through August 31st, the UM Resident will work in the community studio space, which consists of shared community studio area, and be given five shelves to store work and supplies. For the general public, this usually costs $105/mo plus an annual membership, but all these fees are waived for the UM Resident.

- All residents have 24/7 access to the facility
- The UM Resident will assist with summer workshops. For an undergraduate student working towards a career in the ceramics field, this is great opportunity to build experience!
- UM residents will have the same obligations as other residents (studio and gallery duties up to 5 hr/wk, plus create six cups and plates for summer fundraiser)
- All residents are responsible for materials and firing fees

There is no application fee for the UM Student Residency. Applicants must fill out the application form and include other documentation listed on the application form. Applications are due no later than Thursday April 12, 2012. Applicants will be notified of results before the end of April.
